

Native Trails Expands Popular NativeStone™ Collection with New Sinks and Vanity Tops

Palomar Vanity Top with Integral Sink, Olivos Bar & Prep Sink, Malibu Bar Sink and Cabrillo Bath Sink will be available in June 2015

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif. (March 2, 2015) – Native Trails, the eco-chic California company known the world over for its luxury, artisan-made kitchen and bath products, is expanding its revolutionary NativeStone™ Collection for 2015 with four new sinks and vanity tops. The new products – available in June –include: Palomar Vanity Top with Integral Sink, Olivos Bar & Prep Sink, Malibu Bar Sink and Cabrillo Bath Sink. The entire NativeStone collection, which includes sustainable concrete kitchen, bar/prep and bathroom sinks, made its debut in 2014. It is the company’s most affordable kitchen and bath product line to date.

Handmade by artisans in Vietnam, NativeStone is a very strong blend of cement and natural jute fiber. Surprisingly lightweight (40 percent lighter than standard concrete), the innovative and durable material is resistant to cracking, scratching or staining.

“NativeStone has been an huge hit with showrooms, interior designers and homeowners alike, which is why we’ve expanded the collection to include even more unique, eco-friendly pieces,” said Naomi Neilson Howard, founder and CEO of Native Trails. “NativeStone sinks and vanity tops capture what customers today want – function and form. With NativeStone, we’ve really enjoyed working with our extraordinarily skilled artisans to create a product that is not only exceptionally functional and built to perform, but is also “wows” on an aesthetic level and brings an earthy type of beauty to any kitchen, bar or bath space.”
